 - b) Contact information and status of the Appellant

7. An Individual who wishes to initiate an appeal beyond the seven (7) day period must provide a written request stating the reasons for an exemption. The decision to allow, or not allow, an appeal outside of the seven (7) day period will be at the sole discretion of the Case Manager and may not be appealed. In making their decision, the Case Manager shall consider whether there were exceptional circumstances that prevented the Appellant from filing their appeal within the otherwise stipulated seven (7) day appeal deadline.

Grounds for Appeal

8. A decision cannot be appealed on its merits alone. An appeal may only be heard if there are sufficient grounds for appeal. Sufficient grounds to appeal a decision are limited to when the Respondent:
- a) Made a decision that it did not have the authority or jurisdiction (as set out in the Respondent's governing documents) to make;
 - b) Failed to follow its own procedures (as set out in the Respondent's governing documents);
 - c) Made a decision that was influenced by bias (where bias is defined as a lack of neutrality to such an extent that the decision-maker appears not to have considered other views);

- d) Failed to consider relevant information or took into account irrelevant information in making the decision; or
 - e) Made a decision that was grossly unreasonable
9. Upon receiving the notice of the appeal, the fee, and all other information (outlined in the 'Timing of Appeal' section of this Policy), BC Snowboard and the Appellant may first attempt to resolve the dispute pursuant to BC Snowboard's Dispute Resolution Policy or through the Early Resolution Facilitation services offered by the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of BC (SDRCC).
10. Appeals resolved by mediation under BC Snowboard's Dispute Resolution Policy or through Early Resolution Facilitation at the SDRCC will result in the administration fee referred to in Section 6(j) above being refunded to the Appellant.

Screening of Appeal

11. Should the appeal not be resolved by using the Dispute Resolution Policy or through resolution facilitation at the SDRCC, BC Snowboard will appoint an independent Case Manager (who must not be in a conflict of interest) who has the following responsibilities:
- a) Determine if the appeal falls under the scope of this Policy (Sections 4 and 5 above);
 - b) Determine if the appeal was submitted in a timely manner (Sections 6 and 7 above);
 - c) Decide whether there are sufficient grounds for the appeal as described in Section 8 above
12. If the appeal is denied on the basis of insufficient grounds, because it was not submitted in a timely manner, or because it did not fall under the scope of this Policy, the Appellant will be notified, in writing, of the reasons for this decision. This decision may not be appealed.
13. If the Case Manager is satisfied there are sufficient grounds for an appeal, the Case Manager will appoint an Appeal Panel which shall consist of a single Arbitrator, to hear the appeal. In extraordinary circumstances, and at the discretion of the Case Manager, a Panel of three persons may be appointed to hear the appeal. In this event, the Case Manager will appoint one of the Panel's members to serve as the Chair.

Procedure for Appeal Hearing

14. The Case Manager shall notify the Parties that the appeal will be heard. The Case Manager shall then decide the format under which the appeal will be heard. This decision is at the sole discretion of the Case Manager and may not be appealed.
15. If a Party chooses not to participate in the hearing, the hearing will proceed in any event.
16. The format of the hearing may involve an oral in-person hearing, an oral hearing by telephone or other electronic means, a hearing based on a review of documentary evidence submitted in advance of the hearing, or a combination of these methods. The hearing will be governed by the procedures that the Case Manager and the Panel deem appropriate in the circumstances, provided that:
- a) The hearing will be held within a timeline determined by the Case Manager
 - b) The Parties will be given reasonable notice of the day, time and place of the hearing
 - c) Copies of any written documents which the parties wish to have the Panel consider will be provided to all Parties in advance of the hearing
 - d) The Parties may be accompanied by a representative, advisor, or legal counsel at their own expense
 - e) The Panel may request that any other individual participate and give evidence at the hearing
 - f) The Panel may allow as evidence at the hearing any oral evidence, document or thing relevant to the subject matter of the appeal, but may exclude such evidence that is unduly repetitious and shall place such weight on the evidence as it deems appropriate

- g) If a decision in the appeal may affect another party to the extent that the other party would have recourse to an appeal in their own right under this Policy, that party will become a party to the appeal in question, will have an opportunity to participate in the appeal, and will be bound by its outcome
 - h) The decision to uphold or reject the appeal will be by a majority vote of Panel members
17. In fulfilling its duties, the Panel may obtain independent advice.

Appeal Decision

18. When rendering its decision, the Panel shall consider whether the Appellant has demonstrated, on a balance of probabilities, that the Respondent made a procedural error as described in Section 8 of this Policy and that this error had, or may reasonably have had, a material effect on the decision or decision-maker.
19. The Panel shall issue its decision, in writing and with reasons, within fourteen (14) days after the hearing's conclusion. In making its decision, the Panel will have no greater authority than that of the original decision-maker. The Panel may decide to:
- a) Reject the appeal and confirm the decision being appealed
 - b) Uphold the appeal and refer the matter back to the initial decision-maker for a new decision
 - c) Uphold the appeal and vary the decision
20. The Panel's written decision, with reasons, will be distributed to all Parties, the Case Manager, and BC Snowboard. In extraordinary circumstances, the Panel may first issue a verbal or summary decision soon after the hearing's conclusion, with the full written decision to be issued thereafter. The decision will be considered a matter of public record unless decided otherwise by the Panel.
21. The Panel's decision may be appealed by any of the Parties to the SDRCC in accordance with the Canadian Sport Dispute Resolution Code.

Timelines

22. If the circumstances of the appeal are such that adhering to the timelines outlined by this Policy will not allow a timely resolution of the appeal, the Case Manager and/or Panel may direct that these timelines be revised.

Confidentiality

23. The appeals process is confidential and involves only the Parties, the Case Manager, the Panel, and any independent advisors to the Panel. Once initiated and until a decision is released, none of the Parties will disclose confidential information to any person not involved in the proceedings.

Final and Binding

24. No action or legal proceeding will be commenced against BC Snowboard or Individuals in respect of a dispute, unless BC Snowboard has refused or failed to provide or abide by the dispute resolution process and/or appeal process as set out in BC Snowboard's governing documents.

Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of BC ("SDRCC")

25. By agreement between the Parties, the internal appeal process may be bypassed and the appeal may be heard directly by the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of BC ("SDRCC").
